Moore College of Art & Design

This exhibition presents works that are the result of a draw-a-thon – a project organized by Joshua Marsh in partnership with the Social & Studio Practices graduate department – that took place on Saturday, May 21 in The Galleries at Moore College of Art & Design. Alumni of Moore's MFA in Studio Art graduate program, as well as current and incoming Social & Studio Practices students and faculty, gathered in the College's lobby to draw together. Over the course of nearly four hours, the group created between five and ten works each on 9 x 12 sheets of paper and then collectively reviewed the drawings, selected one from each artist, and ultimately curated this small exhibition of very recent works on paper.

ARTISTS INCLUDE:

Omenihu Amachi '16, Alexander Conner '16, Phoebe Durst '18, Dawn Kramlich '13, Kristin Osgood Lamelas '11, Joshua Marsh (Facilitator), Jeremy Millington (Faculty), Kristin Myers '13, Ben Panter '12, Chello Sherman '15, and Daniel Tucker (Faculty).
